
Peer reviewed version

Link to publication record in Explore Bristol Research
PDF-document

University of Bristol - Explore Bristol Research
General rights

This document is made available in accordance with publisher policies. Please cite only the published version using the reference above. Full terms of use are available: http://www.bristol.ac.uk/pure/about/ebr-terms
How Can We Effectively Share Personal Data Across Organisations?

Nasrul Ismail
Data Analyst, Bristol City Council
Nasrul.Ismail@bristol.gov.uk
Background Setting

What constitutes ‘personal data’ in the Connecting Families context?

What are the drivers behind sharing personal data in the Connecting Families setting?
Using Legal Provisions as an Enabling Framework

Antisocial behaviour
- Section 115 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998

Truancy or school exclusion
- Section 17 of the Children Act 1989

Worklessness
- Section 131 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012 – from May 2013 onwards
- Transitional agreement - Section 72 of the Welfare Reform Act 1999

Local Discretion
- Section 1 of the Localism Act 2011
- Article 8 of European Convention of Human Rights (ECHR)
Establishing an Information Sharing Protocol

What protocols or agreements are already in place?

What are the considerations that need to be taken into account?
Developing an Information Hub

Multi-Agency Risk Assessment Conferences (MARACs)

Wales Accord on the Sharing of Personal Information (WASPI)

Southampton City Council and St. Helens Metropolitan Borough Council
Statistical Manipulations

Quantitative

- Anonymisation
- Data masking
- Aggregation
- Suppression
- Rounding
- Tabular reporting
- Banding

Qualitative

- Family profiles/insights
- Case studies
Bath and North East Somerset Council
Making Bath and North East Somerset an even better place to live, work and visit